Activity 1

Entertainment

Telling stories after dinner, when sitting around a camp fire, or late at night

History

Explaining things that happened in the past. They might be myths and legends, but they might be stories from family or cultural history

Explanation

Thinking about big, difficult topics. Who are we? How did we get here?

Education

Using stories to teach people how they should behave, what might happen in certain situations, or how to handle different circumstances

Identity

Using stories to help people understand who they are and where they come from.
'Your grandfather used to do that! Did I ever tell you about the time when...'
